Personal net worth (assets minus liabilities) $254,996

By person

Person	Own items	Share of joint items	Net worth
Self	$254,996	$0	$254,996
Spouse/Partner	$0	$0	$0
Personal net worth	$254,996	$0	$254,996

- Personal level: what you and your partner own and owe in your own names, plus your share of joint items (split equally unless a different split is recorded). It does not include any SMSF, trust, HUF or company assets.
- Your Retirement register has an SMSF fund record, "SMSF" (AUD 503,000), and a separate row held at SMSF fund level, "Other Retirement Assets" (AUD 133,000). If both describe the same fund, counting both would count it twice, so only the fund-level row is counted in the SMSF block and the fund record is shown but not counted. Please record the fund once, using its own net balance (assets less liabilities).

Assets

Item	Amount (AUD)
Cash	$3,000
Investment property	$475,000
Other	$25,000
Total assets	$503,000

Liabilities

Item	Amount (AUD)
Not recorded at the fund
Total liabilities	Not recorded

SMSF net value	$133,000

Shown but not counted

- SMSF: $503,000. A separate fund-level row already carries the fund, so counting this record as well would count the fund twice.

What this adds to the family total

Net value of the fund (100%)	$133,000
Share counted	100%
Amount included in the family total	$133,000

Counted in full (100%) in the family total.

- Family level: the personal level plus your entities, shown separately: SMSF, family trusts and HUFs in full, and companies at your ownership share. Entity data stays recorded separately; this is a combined view for reporting.
- Assets are the fund's holdings (Rao Super Fund), recorded in Detailed mode. No loan or other liability is recorded at the fund, so none is shown here (not recorded at the fund). The net value counted for the fund is $133,000 (entered as: Other Retirement Assets); the holdings add to $503,000, so $370,000 of the difference is not itemised.

How the family net worth is made up

Level	Counted	Assets	Liabilities	Net worth
Personal level (Self, Spouse/Partner, joint shares)	Your own and joint items; excludes every entity	$775,900	$520,904	$254,996
SMSF	In full	Not itemised	Not itemised	$133,000
Family net worth		$908,900	$520,904	$387,996

Personal net worth $254,996 + SMSF (in full) $133,000 = $387,996

- SMSF fund record not counted in the family figure because a fund-level row already carries the fund (previously both were counted): +$503,000

Dashboard: personal $254,996, family $387,996. These are the same figures as in this statement.

- Family level: the personal level plus your entities, shown separately: SMSF, family trusts and HUFs in full, and companies at your ownership share. Entity data stays recorded separately; this is a combined view for reporting.
- Your Retirement register has an SMSF fund record, "SMSF" (AUD 503,000), and a separate row held at SMSF fund level, "Other Retirement Assets" (AUD 133,000). If both describe the same fund, counting both would count it twice, so only the fund-level row is counted in the SMSF block and the fund record is shown but not counted. Please record the fund once, using its own net balance (assets less liabilities).
- SMSF: SMSF $503,000 is shown but not counted, because a separate fund-level row already carries the fund (see the SMSF statement).
- Where an entity's value was entered as one net figure, the model counts it on the assets side; its liabilities are not itemised.
